Your obligations

Remember, your premium and insurance are based on the details you have provided to us. Please make sure this information accurately reflects your circumstances and that you inform us immediately if anything needs to change. Please also tell us of any changes in circumstances that may affect the services provided by us or the cover provided by your policy. This is particularly important before taking out a policy, but it also applies throughout the life of the policy too.

You need to consider:

- if you fail to fairly present the risk to us, including by failing to disclose any information material to the insurance, you could invalidate the policy, claims may not be paid or the amount we pay may be reduced;
- we will only cover you for the activities you have told us about and we have agreed to cover. If you have not told us about any of your activities, it is unlikely you will be covered for any corresponding claim or loss;
- we will not make any payment in respect of anything you knew, or ought to have known, before the start of the period of insurance which would be likely to result in a claim or loss;
- you should read and check all insurance documents to ensure that you are aware of the cover, limits and other terms that apply;

Policy length

The period of insurance is shown on your policy schedule. Cover under the policy will come to an end at the end of the period of insurance unless the policy is renewed.

Geographical limits

Where any section of your policy schedule shows the geographical limits which apply to that section of the policy, we will only pay for claims and losses under that section which arise from activities performed or acts, incidents or occurrences taking place within those geographical limits.

Cancellation rights

You can cancel this policy by giving us 30 days' notice. You will only be charged for the premiums due up to the date of cancellation. If we need to cancel the policy, we'll give you 30 days' notice in writing and refund any surplus premiums you might have paid. Please note – we may deduct an administration fee from any refunded payment.

There is an exception to our 30-day notice period, which is triggered when we don't receive your Direct Debit payments within the agreed 14-day period. At this point, we will contact you as soon as possible and stop the policy immediately.
